Recap: Annual Meeting 2023

Joe Montgomery, JASM Vice President

On Wednesday, December 13th at Taiyo International's office, JASM hosted its 2023 Annual Meeting. Many JASM members were in attendance ranging from brand new to veteran members.

The event was kicked off by JASM's Vice President Joe Montgomery who reviewed the 2023 membership statistics and treasury report, both of which have been steady.

Thanks to many of you who filled out the recent survey, Joe was able to present meeting goers with your feedback which coincided well with the strategic plan that the board worked on earlier this year. Many attendees confirmed and elaborated on the feedback and were able to provide great insight on what action JASM might take and how it might impact the strategic plan.

Joe then led the attendees through new board member nominations and voting. We are happy to announce that after a unanimous vote Joe will be returning for another term on JASM's board and Ben Van Lierop and Jeff DuBois will be starting their first terms as board members in the new year.

Save the date for New J-Quiz 2024 (Online) Everyone is welcome!

On Sunday, February 11th, JASM will host J-Quiz 2024. Please save the date! The JASM's new J-Quiz 2024 is for anyone of any age who is interested.

One of JASM's important missions is to support those who want to learn Japanese and get to know Japan better and we know there are so many of you, always studying and reading about Japan. As we reached the 50th anniversary of our organization in 2023, we created this new Japan-focused trivia challenge for people of all ages who are learning about Japan.

Our goal for J-Quiz is to increase cultural awareness and understanding and to bring together people who have an interest in Japan.

What is the new J-Quiz?

There will be 30 questions regarding Japan and Japanese language. The participants can try fun quizzes to test knowledge of Japan! This event will also include information about colleges that offer Japanese classes, plus cultural exhibition videos where experts will share their knowledge and skills with us. With Hopin's "networking" function, you can meet and chat with people who are learning Japanese and share ideas or ask questions!

Please visit our website to answer the sample questions and to watch the sample video!

This quiz is free for participants, but JASM appreciates voluntary donations. Stay tuned for registration details!

Letter from JASM President

Last month, we conducted a survey of JASM members and stakeholders. Over 80 of you responded, and provided a ton of interesting information that will help us to decide JASM's direction in 2024 and beyond. In next month's Tsushin, we will include an article with more detail about the survey responses. Stay tuned!

Meanwhile, I want to highlight one comment that stood out to me:

"I think JASM could have a much bigger membership and more influence than it does."

I couldn't agree more! Members are the beating heart of JASM, and anybody who cares about the connection between Japan and Minnesota should become a member. By my count, that means we should have at least ten-thousand members. As of December 10th, we had a total of 228 active memberships, a slight increase from the 220 memberships we had on January 1st. Most of those memberships are bundles (families and organizations). If we figure an average of 3 members per membership, we are just shy of 700 members. We have a lot of opportunities to grow. Below are a few major elements of our plan to grow membership.

Outreach to Organizations: Our Membership Chair Peter Hill and Executive Director Rio Saito have been on a road show, visiting companies and nonprofits to discuss the benefits of joining JASM. A big thank you to new members Metoree, Taft, Stettinius & Hollister LLP, and Miller Milling Company. If you belong to an organization that has ties to Japan, Rio and Peter want to visit you, too. Please get in touch with Rio to discuss!

Automatic Membership Renewal: Last year, we had almost 70 new memberships 😊 However, we also had 60 existing memberships that did not renew 😞

We need to plug the leak in our membership bucket! In following up with members who did not renew, we found that one of the biggest reasons was that they were either unaware that their membership was expiring, or they forgot to renew it. Our membership system is currently set to require members to manually renew their memberships each year. In the next few months, we are going to roll out automatic renewal, which should improve our member retention substantially, and reduce the burden on our members. Members who prefer to continue renewing manually will be able to easily turn off automatic renewal.

T-shirts: Joining JASM should be fun, and so should referring new members. What could be more fun than getting an original JASM T-shirt? Suitable for collecting, displaying, and even wearing! If you have yet to join JASM, now is your chance to do so, and get a T-shirt. If you are already a member, refer three new members and get a T-shirt! See the related article on page # of this month's Tsushin for more details.

Just as with everything else we do at JASM, our effort to increase our membership relies heavily on our members and supporters. I hope you will help us out, and I look forward to reporting on a healthy membership gain in an upcoming Tsushin!

Bob Luck, JASM President

Recap: Annual Meeting 2023 continues...

For the closing portion, Executive Director Rio Saito gave an end-of-year summary. She was able to speak about a number of non-JASM events that JASM has been invited to take part in such as the Normandale Japanese Garden Festival, Anime Fusion, and even the reinstitution of Delta's direct flight from Minneapolis to Tokyo. JASM has also been continuing on with online events/seminars that have been able to reach a wider audience in places like Wisconsin and the Dakotas while in-person events such as JASM's annual Harukaze, Mondale Gala, and Obon Festival have continued to grow and be successful.

Special thank you to Taiyo International and Scott Smith for graciously allowing us to use their new office space to host this event.

In closing, thank you all for making 2023 an amazing year for JASM. JASM could not run without the help of all of its members and volunteers. We are grateful to each and every one of you and look forward to spending 2024 with you.

Tom Haeg's Book Review

The River We Remember; William Kent Krueger; Simon and Schuster, 2023; 421 pages.

In this character-driven murder mystery set in a small, rural Minnesota town in 1958, we are introduced to Kyoko Bluestone who becomes a pivotal sort in the plot's enigma. Kyoko is Japanese and a Nagasaki survivor who married Noah Bluestone, a local of Dakota descent and a World War II veteran who was stationed in Japan during the military occupation. While experiencing isolation in the small town, we learn how Noah and Kyoko as a suspect couple passively rise above the fray to endure prejudice to acquit themselves to gain the town's acceptance.

What ingeniously distinguishes River as a murder mystery is geography. The land ("...we love this place enough to die for it...") and the river ("...to look down to this river is to fall in love.") become central characters like all others with their frailties, foibles, and faults. It is a clever metaphorical technique enhancing the whodunit chase and the Bluestones are integral to this theme. Noah's ancestors were driven off the land and Kyoko's land was extinguished by the War.

Kent Krueger is the author of 19 books in the Cork O'Connor mystery series and a New York Times bestselling author with The Tender Land and Ordinary Grace. He lives in the Twin Cities.

Once again, thank you Betty-san and also to our other JASM members. Your contributions to the community are what solidify the bond between Japan and Minnesota.

Exhibition at Mia: Chaos: Ken Matsubara's Buddhist Masterwork

Ken Matsubara, Japanese, born 1948, Chaos, 1983 (detail), two six-panel folding screens (diptych), ink and color on paper. Bell Family Decorative Arts Court (Gallery 333)
Free Exhibition

Two paintings, 600 years apart: the 14th century Taima Mandala and the 20th century Chaos by Ken Matsubara. Despite the chronological distance between them, these two pieces are connected by Buddhist threads. In this installation, accompanied by the echoes of singing bowls, the visitor acts as the bridge between Matsubara's depiction of human struggle and the Taima Mandala's immaculate Pure Land. Take a moment to sit, be still, and focus on being with art.

Ken Matsubara was born in Toyama prefecture, Japan, in 1948. Growing up in a relative's temple, he admired and copied traditional Buddhist artworks displayed throughout the complex. In his late twenties, he apprenticed with Sankō Inoue, a renowned Japanese painter of Western abstraction. Chaos (1983) marked a moment of synthesis and departure. He merged his knowledge of Buddhist concepts with his teacher's abstraction to create a new form of representation, his own abstraction of space and sound.
